

Smallest resolvable effect, by contrast width, against observed main effects

