

What the reference claims the water is doing composed $\hat{I}$

restored $\hat{J}$

attenuation

backscatter

The decomposition the method exists to produce. Only the composed image has ground truth; the other three are the model's own account and are not validated against a measurement.