

The population that never reaches a render all primitives

visible primitives only difference, $\times 4$

Curacao

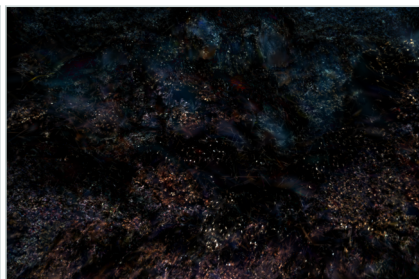

IU13 Red Sea

Japanese Gardens

Panama

Between 59 and 73 per cent of the baseline's primitives fall below the visibility threshold. Silencing them changes the image by almost nothing, which is why a count reduction should be read against the visible population rather than the total.